

Extended Tour Information:

Cost is an additional $975

Fly into New York City on Wednesday, July 21, 2010

Places we will visit while in New York City:

- Broadway Play
- Fifth Avenue Walk: FAO Schwarz, NBA Store, Trump Tower, Chinatown, Little Italy
- Rockefeller Center and Today Show
- Central Park
- New York City Tour to include: Wall Street, Soho, Greenwich Village, and the Financial District
- Ellis Island
- Stature of Liberty
- Ground Zero
- Times Square

Depart for Philadelphia around dinner time on July 22, 2010

Places to visit while in Philadelphia:

- Independence Hall National Historic Park
- Congress Hall
- Liberty Bell
- Betsy Ross House
- Christ Church Cemetery
- Christ Church

Depart for Gettysburg the afternoon of July 23, 2010

The afternoon will be spent with the Gettysburg Battlefield Tour

Depart for Washington D.C. that evening

July 24, 2010

Places to visit this morning:

- National Archives: Vietnam Veterans Memorial, Vietnam Women's Memorial, Korean Memorial, World War II Memorial, Smithsonian Complex, Natural History Museum, American History Museum

This is the day that the rest of the Scouts will join up with the Scouts on the extended tour. Everyone will be traveling together from this point on. The price for this tour is already included in the price of the National Jamboree.

Places to visit the rest of the day:

- Botanical Gardens
- National Museum of the American Indian
- Air and Space Museum
- Hirshhorn Sculpture Garden

July 25, 2010

Places to visit around Washington D.C.:

- Arlington National Cemetery
- Kennedy Gravesite
- Tomb of the Unknown Soldier
- Changing of the Guards at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier
- White House
- Washington Monument
- Boy Scout Memorial
- Lincoln Memorial
- Jefferson Memorial
- FDR Memorial
- Iwo Jima Marine Memorial

July 26, 2010

Places to visit in the morning:

- Capitol Hill Grounds
- Library of Congress
- Supreme Court

We will be departing for Fort A.P. Hill in the afternoon

National Jamboree: July 27, 2010 – August 4, 2010

August 4, 2010

We will spend the day at Williamsburg, PA at Busch Gardens

August 5, 2010

We will be in Washington D.C. until our flights for back home. Places we will try to see before flying out are:

- Mt. Vernon – Home of George Washington
- Alexandria
- Ford's Theatre
- Peterson House
- Hard Rock Café in Washington D.C.
- Smithsonian Complex